Dee Brauning has a way with words that makes one's heart sing and be open to learn and hear more. Gentle phrases leap out and make one think and wrestle with God and one's self. (from the introduction) Margaret Slater, Inclusive Ministry Coordinator Local Church Ministries, United Church of Christ In these meditations on the love and trust of the relationship between guide dog and person, readers find themselves learning to love and to trust in other important ways. Brauning speaks from experience, yet with care and respect for the reader's own journey and conclusions about life. Mary Avidano, Pastor Albion United Church of Christ Albion, Nebraska Brauning has a gift for writing words that are truly inspired and inspiring. Her work with guide dogs has given her a unique insight into spiritual life, and a very understandable way of presenting God's message. Judy Campbell, Director of Training Leader Dogs for the Blind Rochester, Michigan These superbly crafted meditations, focusing on messages of hope and the reality of God's presence, introduce insights that speak to the heart. The meditations bear reading several times, allowing one to savor the words and explore the meanings for one's own life. Martha D. Walker, Counselor and Christian Educator Pottstown, Pennsylvania Using her own experiences with leader dogs as a metaphor for our dependence upon a caring God, Brauning creatively weaves together personal stories, fresh insights into biblical passages, and implications for people in the pews. Dosa Carlson, Pastor Emeritus Church of the Beatitudes Phoenix, Arizona These messages are a real treasure! Told in a setting that includes a dog guide named Treasure, the stories help relate our faith to our own daily situations. Treasure helps us gain some insight and understanding into both our faith and our life. Bob Loffer, Associate Conference Minister Nebraska Conference, United Church of Christ The images of our faith strengthen our spiritual growth. Dee Brauning weaves the attributes of the divine so well as she captures the person with a disability living in unity with a dog, or is it with God? David Denham, Consultant United Church of Christ Disabilities Ministries Dallas A. Brauning is an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ and full-time writer who has served churches in Colorado and Nebraska. She has been honored by her denomination for outstanding ministry to persons with disabilities and their families, and she is the editor of That All May Worship And Serve, the United Church of Christ's national disabilities ministry newsletter. A cum laude graduate of Albion College, Brauning received her Master of Divinity degree and an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Chicago Theological Seminary. Among Brauning's many other CSS titles are Preaching The Miracles and Preaching The Parables.

Do you ever feel like your relationship with God is about trying harder and pedaling faster just to be noticed and valued? Riding Tandem is not about trying harder but letting God be the Captain of our lives. It's about letting go of control and learning that our position on this tandem journey is on the back of the bike. Our personal relationship with God is built for two. We must learn to lean into His leading, pedal forward, and trust Him with the directions. Riding Tandem will teach us that while our final destination is heaven, our destiny on earth has purpose. We are not just along for the ride, we are apart of the ride. God wants us to live an abundant life completely surrendered to His leading. Riding Tandem with Jesus is letting go of the handle bars and experiencing His power as we pedal. Everyday. Riding Tandem is divided into six chapters using the acronym T-A-N-D-E-M. Week One: T-ime for Takeoff Week Two: Alignment Week Three: N-ecessary Stops Week Four: D-on't Stop Pedaling Week Five: E-njoy the Ride Week Six: M-ark the Moments. We have a choice to make. Are we going to steer our own stories, or are we going to allow God to be our guide? My prayer for us as we journey through Riding Tandem is that we will hop on the back and allow God to take the wheel. If we have teachable hearts, God will use our stories in tandem with His Word to teach us His principles. Yes, it can be hard. Sometimes it feels easier to be in control, work hard, and get the job done. But God has a bigger plan. His ways are higher than ours and always better.

Where is God taking you today? Are you equipped for the ride? He promises never to leave your side as the Captain of your life. Do you trust His leading? Are you willing to let go of the handle bars? Climb on sweet one and let God balance the bike so you can ride into His presence. Everyday. It's a beautiful day for a bike ride!

Have you ever dreamt about going on your bicycle to a different town? Or perhaps you thought about hopping on your bike and going to a faraway country? Or maybe you were considering going to another continent? Did you know that you can materialize these dreams and turn them into your reality and your life? Then this book is perfect for you! Not only will it tell you everything you need to know about bike touring around the world, but it will also give you a glimpse of what life is like when you are finally on the road. If you want to know more about bike tours, but you are not ready to go on your own bike touring experience yet, then this book will answer a couple of questions you may have, and, hopefully, it will also show you the way to have a successful bike tour. This guide focuses on everything you need to know about bike Wherever you are in your walk with Christ, this anthology offers practical, scripture-based wisdom as well as delightfully serendipitous surprises on every page. Three outstanding preachers from diverse denominations provide a complete set of sermons for each Sunday and major celebration throughout the Christian year based on the Second Reading from Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary. Weaving together illustrations that enlighten the mind and warm the heart with fresh insight into New Testament epistle texts, these creative messages invite you to experience God's presence anew. Each biblically grounded sermon draws on a deep understanding of the human condition, reaffirming the hope that is ours through Jesus Christ and challenging you to a more intense faith relationship with the almighty. This is an essential resource that's useful for: - Fresh homiletical approaches to the lectionary texts - Preaching illustrations - A clearer understanding of scripture passages - Adult study and discussion groups - Personal devotions and Bible study on each Sunday's readings "Dallas Braunger has a way with words that makes one's heart sing and be open to learn and hear more. Gentle phrases leap out and make one think and wrestle with God and one's self." Margaret Slater Inclusive Ministry Coordinator, Local Church Ministries United Church of Christ "Gary Carver's sermons are a delight to read. True to life, often humorous, and filled with insight, they mark points at which the gospel intersects with everyday experience, call us to renewed faith, and show us what it means to live gracefully."
